Leading the way...

IBDP Representatives

Tiara Batra

Being the IBDP Representative means being the voice of the Diploma Programme students. It is an honour for me to act as a link between the student body and the school. My role is to represent and communicate student concerns, ideas, and suggestions, help organise academic and well-being initiatives, and make the IBDP experience supportive, inclusive, and enjoyable for everyone in the IBDP.

Veer Mahajan

Being the IBDP Rep is quite fulfilling. I had aimed to become a Head pupil since I was in Grade 8. My experiences as House Captain and Vice Captain taught me to understand students' needs. I want to guide the cohort in the right direction in every possible way and make it memorable for everyone.

Cultural Representatives

Arya Shrivastava

Culture deserves to be loud, creative, and unforgettable, and I am excited to help make it a focus in our school. From iconic themes to ground-breaking performances, I want our cultural events to be bold and exciting. Let's make our culture impossible to ignore!

Vaaryan Joshi

Humanity thrives on its culture and so does JNIS. I will help the school thrive. I aim to bring the community closer together and for us to further enrich the schools heritage with our performances.

Sports Representatives

Meera Agarwal

Sports play a vital role in shaping discipline, resilience, and teamwork, and I'm excited to advocate for them in the IBDP. I hope to encourage greater participation, support competitive opportunities, and help students maintain a healthy balance between academics and physical well-being.

Nirvaan Jain

As an IBDP Sports Representative, I want to strengthen school spirit through consistent engagement in sports. My focus is on inclusivity, fitness, and fair play, ensuring that every student feels encouraged to participate and grow through sport, both individually and as part of a team.

House Representatives

My favorite anime character Monkey D. Luffy once said, "If you don't take risks, you can't create a future." I strive to match his level of tireless ambition and lead Akbar to the glory it deserves.

Kanishk Dasgupta, Akbar House

I strongly believe that effort equals results, and I'm ready to show that over the next year. As the Einstein house captain, I want to lead my house to success, and make sure that each member feels like they belong.

Antara Patel, Einstein House

Lincoln House isn't just a name, it's a legacy. We stand together, push forward, and make ourselves impossible to ignore. United, driven, and proud, we take on every challenge and leave our mark wherever we go — loud, fearless, and repping red.

Dhveer Shah, Lincoln House

Unlike a certain football team, I live by the idea that United we stand, divided we fall, and thus believe that the only way to victory is to give everyone a chance to be heard. We can only return to the top together, and I hope to be the unifying force that our house can look up to, always ready to yell "up the greens".

Rishaan Sharma, Mahatma Gandhi House

A firm believer in listening as the most important quality of a leader— I'm here to ensure that every member's voice is heard. As Tagore house representative, I believe that it's about time Tagore stops letting other houses take the win, and rise back to glory!

Ashie Chaudhary, Tagore House

My main principle is simple- believe, and everything will fall in its place. I have always had a special connection to SV and felt like a natural leader and hence, with the help of my SV house companions, I wanted to lead the charge to help make sure no one can dethrone us.

Svarrocas Nair, Swami Vivekananda House

Mind & Meaning

Beyond the Screen: A Reflection on the Life of Pi

By Rishaan Sharma

Recently during the winter break I was searching for a good movie to watch and I couldn't help but stumble upon an old favourite, The Life of Pi. As a movie, it really has it all, from an interesting plot to lovable characters, and a deep meaning that underlines it all. To sum it up for anyone who hasn't watched it yet, it's a story about a boy named Pi Patel who lands up in a shipwreck and is stranded on a lifeboat with a tiger named Richard Parker, as they both attempt to drift their way back to humanity, learning about resilience and confidence throughout.

Throughout the story, there are highs and lows, teaching viewers multiple strong lessons, the main one being resilience. Despite running out of food and despite a literal predator being on the boat with him, Pi stays strong by thinking positive, which proves that through fortification of the mind, anything is possible. A strategy adopted by Pi in the movie is the creation of a routine. Believe it or not, routines actually create certainty, and can help to not only ground us but also reduce levels of stress, anxiety and fear. Speaking of fear, in the movie Richard Parker (the tiger) represents fear, and despite being terrified for his life, Pi learns to live with it, and uses this fear to remain alert at sea, proving the indomitable nature of the human spirit.

I believe the film's core message is that it's acceptable to be uncertain about everything. Pi survives without knowing how much more he has to endure, where he's going and how much longer it would even take; yet, everything works out for him in the end. In today's day and age where our routines are overflowing with worries, we should stop and breathe for a moment, and acknowledge that it's okay to not know how to deal with it. After all, acceptance of a problem being present is the first step to finding the solution! Thus, I feel this movie really resonates with how we as students should approach our lives. Fight fear of exams or anything else that might scare you with confidence, and stay mentally strong throughout, as no matter how hard times might get! And at the end of the day, it's okay to not have all the answers and have it all figured out, after all, growth only happens through uncertainty when we face it headfirst! The JAM team is always open to lend a helping hand and talk, to remind you that we are always greater together!

Classroom Chronicles

सोशल मीडिया: प्रभाव, प्रयोग और परिप्रेक्ष्य

कक्षा ग्यारह के विद्यार्थियों के रूप में हमने डिजिटल युग में सोशल मीडिया के प्रभाव को समझने के लिए एक सामूहिक परियोजना पर कार्य किया। इस गतिविधि के अंतर्गत हमने साक्षात्कार लिए, संदेशात्मक नाट्य प्रस्तुति तैयार की और लघु फ़िल्मों के माध्यम से अपने विचार व्यक्त किए। हमारी इन नाट्य गतिविधियों में हमने यह दिखाने का प्रयास किया कि सोशल मीडिया का अत्यधिक उपयोग पढ़ाई, मित्रता और पारिवारिक संबंधों पर नकारात्मक प्रभाव डाल सकता है, जबकि संतुलित उपयोग हमें अधिक केंद्रित, सकारात्मक और प्रगतिशील बनाता है। फ़ोन से दूर रहने पर हम अपने लक्ष्यों के प्रति अधिक सजग और परिवार व मित्रों के साथ अधिक जुड़े हुए महसूस करते हैं। इस विरोधाभास ने हमें डिजिटल संतुलन का महत्व गहराई से समझाया। इस परियोजना के अंतर्गत हमने 40 से 70 वर्ष आयु वर्ग के लोगों के साक्षात्कार भी लिए। उनके अनुभवों से हमें यह जानने को मिला कि सोशल मीडिया ने जहाँ दुनिया को जोड़ने और जानकारी को सुलभ बनाने में बड़ी भूमिका निभाई है, वहीं इसके अति-प्रयोग से मानसिक और सामाजिक चुनौतियाँ भी सामने आती हैं।

उनके विचारों ने हमें संतुलित दृष्टिकोण अपनाने की प्रेरणा दी। इस परियोजना के माध्यम से हम विद्यार्थियों ने निर्देशन, साक्षात्कार, फ़िल्मांकन और संपादन जैसे नए कौशल सीखे। साथ ही हमने यह भी समझा कि सोशल मीडिया का जिम्मेदार और सजग उपयोग ही हमें एक स्वस्थ, सकारात्मक और संतुलित जीवन की ओर ले जा सकता है। यह अनुभव हमारे लिए केवल एक गतिविधि नहीं, बल्कि सीख और आत्ममंथन की एक महत्वपूर्ण यात्रा रहा।
